In partnership with Lake Health System and Medical Mutual, we are excited to offer the Lake Health Chamber Network HMO product on a fully insured basis to businesses of any size. This product gives you and your employees access to high-quality and affordable healthcare where you live, work and play.

The Lake Health Chamber Network offers comprehensive healthcare services in Lake County and parts of Cuyahoga and Geauga counties. It includes over 375 practitioners and 11 state-of-the-art facilities at Lake Health, plus access to University Hospitals and Rainbow Babies & Children’s, up to age 20, for tertiary care or services not available at Lake Health.

Employers with 50 or fewer employees can access eight ACA-compliant benefit plans. Employers with 51-99 employees may choose from an extensive suite of standard plans, while customized plans are available for employers with 100 or more employees.

PAINESVILLE TOWNSHIP – There are businesses, organizations and individuals that work diligently for years to serve their communities with no thought of compensation or thanks. Each year the Eastern Lake County Chamber of Commerce seeks to recognize such dedication by presenting a Beacon Award.

This year, Joseph Kallay, Jr. is the Beacon Award recipient. He served as a firefighter for Painesville Township Fire Department and the Perry Joint Fire District for a combined 33 years until he retired in 2014. Since then he founded Perfection Electric Inc. and has worked as an electrician, as well as continuing to serve his community by volunteering with various organizations.

Kallay and his wife, Linda, will celebrate 30 years of marriage Christmas Eve.

He said the chamber personnel enlisted the help of members of the Karpos Ministry at St. Mary Church in Painesville to surprise him with the announcement he was the Beacon Award winner.

The members all put on T-shirts that read, “I (heart) Joe,” then called him outside, saying they had a crisis.

“So I come out there and there’s my family; I recognized Dave Komjati from the bank, and he’s the one that presented me with that. I was shocked,” Kallay said, with an emotional tremble in his voice. “You don’t do this kind of stuff to get appreciated.”

He explained the Karpos Ministry was founded 10 years ago to provide meals to the homeless. Currently, they provide 80 to 100 meals two nights a week outside during the summer and inside the Fr. Hanzo Center in the winter.

“We feed the homeless and the less fortunate,” Kallay said. “These people are, most of the time, down on their luck and the meal that they get from our ministry is the only meal they have for the day.”

Another group he is involved with is the Wounded Warriors in Action Foundation weekend for Purple Heart recipient, holds a montage of photos taken by volunteer John Everett during a Wounded Warriors in Action Foundation weekend for Purple Heart recipients.

“Jimmy’s spirit of giving is what we wanted to continue on; he was a very giving person and we didn’t want his memory to fade,” Kallay said. Before he passed, Garofalo organized a golf outing to raise money to help a young man who was paralyzed in a car accident.

For the past 25 years, the Firefighter Phillip J. Garofalo Memorial Scholarship Committee has hosted golf outings and presented about $109,000 in scholarships to Perry and Harvey high school graduates, since Garofalo was a Harvey grad and Perry resident.

Throughout his interview, Kallay gave credit to others for their contributions, but admitted he was proud to have helped start the Perry Joint Fire District’s annual pancake breakfasts which raise money for special projects with donations and help educate the public.

The breakfasts would raise about $8,000 or more and help support the fire district’s Knos Box program which provides a locked box to hold a house key so firefighters don’t have to break down a door to provide medical assistance in an emergency.

Kallay said he has been involved with the Knights of Columbus Painesville Council #947, a Catholic men’s organization, since he was 18 years old.

“Charity is our first virtue,” he said. “Everything that we do is involved around charity. My father got me into that.”

Kallay noted, like many such organizations, the membership is aging because younger people are not joining, but the start of a Corvette raffle each year has helped with their fundraising and allowed them to donate to local charities.

“On a more personal basis, I’m still fortunate to have a 96-year-old mother that needs me too,” he said, adding she is still able to get around.

Kallay added his father, Joseph Sr., was one of the original Painesville Township firefighters when the department was founded in 1966. His brother, Steve, also served as a firefighter for 36 years, retiring from the Painesville Township Fire Department.

“I try to slow down, but there’s too many things that I’m interested in,” Kallay said.
Lantern of Madison named Business of the Year

MADISON TOWNSHIP – When seeking candidates for Business of the Year the Eastern Lake County Chamber of Commerce looks for those that not only benefit the local economy but go above and beyond to contribute to the community as well.

This year, the Lantern of Madison on Hubbard Road is the recipient of that honor. Andrea Paratto, coordinator for the Madison Memory Care Unit and a dementia practitioner, said Jean Makesh is the founder / CEO of the Lantern Group, initiated in 2003, which includes Lantern of Madison, Lantern of Chagrin Valley and Lantern of Saybrook.

He is on the Lake Erie College Board of Directors, has a post graduate diploma in occupational therapy and an MBA. He was named an Entrepreneur of the Year and won a Model Practice Award.

“What sets the Lantern apart is we are an assisted living that offers every level of care so we want our clients to make this their forever home,” Paratto said. “We offer independent living to total care and everything in between.”

Another special service is their Svayus, or dementia care, program which helps to improve clients’ memories and attention span, and assists in keeping them as independent as possible.

She added Svayus is ancient Sanskrit meaning “a life full of vigor.”

Efforts are made to improve neuroplasticity of the brain, Paratto said. That is done by working with clients to reteach them daily living skills like combing hair and brushing teeth so they can maintain as much independence as possible.

“We exercise the brain. Our activities are based on brain activities,” she said. “We do a lot of math and science, a lot of problem solving, a lot of thinking, because the human brain, if it’s exercised—along with proper nutrition—it will continue to grow; it will continue to stay healthy.”

The Lantern’s Svayus, or memory care unit, was opened in 2012.

The Svayus, or memory care unit, at the Lantern of Madison, Eastern Lake County Chamber of Commerce’s Business of the Year, has a quaint, neighborhood appearance.

“We used to have it in the Lantern in the basement before it was completely redone,” Paratto said.

Currently the Lantern of Madison has 72 residents, but has room for 96.

Asked about the Lantern’s philosophy, Paratto read as follows:

“We recognize that all of us age with time. Aging is unavoidable, however, some associated factors of aging may be negotiated or delayed by adopting a lifestyle that stimulates and facilitates a healthy aging process. We also believe Fountain of Life Programming emphasizes and encourages involvement in all activities of life and whatever level is possible or desired. All services will focus on assistance. Our role is not to do for, but assist with each resident’s identified needs.”
